Surrounded by open farmland, a substantial, three storey, late Georgian, former farmhouse standing on almost three acres of delightful grounds with mature trees and hedging, includes a two acre paddock, a stable block, a tennis court and outbuildings. Just five miles to the east of the pretty market town of Spalding with its highly regarded grammar schools and a train station for those wishing to commute, and a mile from a very good primary school in the village, the location is perfect for a family or indeed anyone yearning for a tranquil, country lifestyle.

Peterborough train station is 30 min drive away offering regular train service to London from 49 minutes.

Typical of the Georgian era, rooms are of fine proportions with high ceilings and are flooded with natural light from the large, timber, mainly sash windows. A double-fronted façade with a pair of bay windows on the ground floor - a likely Victorian addition - the entrance is now to the side of the building where a good-sized hall opens into an inner hall, the stairs rising to a generous, galleried landing which leads to a further set of stairs up to the top floor. Three large bedrooms, en-suite and large family bathroom occupy the first floor whilst two further bedrooms are on the second floor.

This property provides great scope for a new owner to update and transform this beautiful building in its attractive setting into a truly spectacular home. The property, is not listed, presents a rare opportunity to breathe new life into this lovely family home renovating and modernising to anyone's individual style and taste.

Downstairs, a spacious dining room and drawing room are to the front whilst the huge, southeast facing, farmhouse-style kitchen is at the back overlooking the garden leading to a sizeable utility room and the rear entrance which in turn opens into a single-storey boot room and then a triple aspect office. This space, currently lined in timber tongue and groove and originally the farm office, has its own entrance and, could be totally separate and self-contained either as a home office or, particularly if combined with the boot room, as an annex (subject to planning).

Outside, an expansive, gravelled carriage driveway to the front is flanked by a pair of magnificent horse chestnuts, whilst a second drive on the right leads to the neighbouring farm yard and to the rear drive and the garages belonging to Cranes-gate House. A deodar cedar is central to another convenient turning circle where, again, there is an abundance of parking. The garage block, with lighting and power and half-glazed sliding doors, provides enclosed parking for several cars and a workshop area within.

The well established garden has a large lawn with bordering hedge, and features a great number of mature trees such as silver birch, willow, magnolia and laburnum, full of spring colour. Beyond, a timber block of three stables, also with light and power, overlooks the two acre paddock which is fenced for livestock and has a separate field access, behind which is an En Tout Cas tennis court enclosed by its wire fencing.

The property lies on the outskirts of the village of Whaplode, about a mile from the centre, in a rural position. The village has an Ofsted rated Good primary school, two garages, a Co-operative store, and an Indian restaurant. It is located within easy reach of Spalding a ten minute drive to the west where there are superb grammar schools (the Ofsted rated 'Outstanding' High for girls and the 'Good' Grammar for boys), a prep school Ayscoughfee Hall, and a train station, as well as a multitude of shops and amenities including Springfields, a retail park the Whaplode side of town.
